A Message From Our Rabbi

A little girl comes home from school, eager to show her mother a drawing. Her mother is washing dishes. “Mommy, guess what?” she squeals, waving the drawing. Without looking up, her mother responds, “What?” “Guess what?” repeats the little girl. Again the mother asks, “What?” “Mommy, you’re not listening.” Still not shifting her focus from the dishes, she says, “Yes sweetie, I am.” “But Mommy, you’re not listening with your eyes.”

It seems, in today’s climate, we are failing in the art of listening. We are so engrossed in our daily lives, so head-down and task-oriented, so divided, that we not only forget to listen with our eyes, we fail to open our ears. Last month we spent time learning from various Torah portions the value of truly seeing and hearing. We saw it with Korach’s rebellion and the possible underlying issue that was at hand. We experienced it again with Bilaam as he gazed upon the tents of Jacob and “truly saw.” And we saw it once more in the stories of Pinchas and Zelophehad’s daughters and how their actions demonstrated the necessity of “seeing” and “hearing” with eyes and ears of truth. Of course, this idea can be found in the most famous of all Jewish prayers, the Shema. We translate it as “hear.” Yet its root and meaning is not “to hear,” rather the higher value, the greater mitzvah — we are commanded to listen.

Hearing is the easy part. Hearing simply happens. Listening and seeing, however, is a conscious choice. Listening requires concentration and leads to understanding. Listening requires not only your ears, but your eyes, your heart, your mind — indeed L’shma nefesh we must listen with our soul, our complete being. Most people are not “hard of hearing,” rather they are “hard of listening.” Acknowledging another human being is not about giving advice; it is about giving attention. People’s words are their most personal creations, coming straight from their minds and going directly into the listener’s ears, yearning to find a home in our heart. When one truly listens, he or she gives more than can be imagined, for the listener holds sacred a piece of the speaker’s soul. What an honor it is to listen!

Rabbi Harold Kushner stated, “When we call out to God in our distress, God answers us by sending us people. Any path is easier to travel when you have somebody’s hand to hold.” There is deep pain in our world right now and it is the pain of divisiveness, isolation and loneliness. We can soften some of that pain. We can put our phone down; turn off the 24-hour news cycle. Or just simply stop what we are doing and listen to our friend or loved one with intention and empathy.

Let’s return to that mother in her kitchen with her daughter. The mother was now listening to her daughter. She put down her dishes and lifted up her eyes, she leaned down, got close to see the creation in the child’s hand. The mother focused on her words, she listened with her eyes and her ears and her heart and her soul whispered, “Hineini — here I am!”

L’Shalom,
Reb Tuviah

A Message From Our Temple President

Dear Members and Friends,

With the High Holy Days only two months away, it is time to start planning for our Days of Awe. This is a time for serious introspection, a time to consider the mistakes of the previous year and repent before Yom Kippur. Temple Beth El has always provided a home for members of our Jewish community to contemplate and pray. We will continue this tradition of opening our synagogue doors to our community as we approach 5785. However, it is vital to understand that you cannot walk in unannounced; you must register in advance, so we can reserve a seat for you and members of your family. Registration is easy and there are many ways to do it, with the quickest and most convenient being through our website. If you are on our mailing list, will also receive a registration form in the mail. Most important, whether you are a member, guest, or friend, you must register in advance, to be admitted into the building. It is sad that we must take these measures, however, we must be diligent and never put the safety and wellbeing of our attendees at risk. As Rosh Hashanah brings 5784 to an end and welcomes 5785, we cannot forget the atrocities of October 7th, but continue to look to the future by honoring LaDor va Dor, from generation to generation. It is our heritage to move forward and celebrate Judaism but to also remember those who have passed. Every year, we celebrate the lives of those who we have lost by remembering them during our Yizkor Service. Yizkor follows our Yom Kippur morning service. As part of Yizkor, we read the names of all being remembered, and to further honor our lost loved ones, the temple prints a Yizkor - Book of Remembrance. This book is handed out to all attendees of our Yizkor service prior to its start. For those of you who wish to have the names of your loved ones and friends in our Book of Remembrance, simply fill out the appropriate form which may be found on our website www.bethel-fl.org. under the "Religious Life / Yizkor – Book of Remembrance" menu.

For those of you interested in learning, or improving your skills in reading Hebrew, we are considering offering a series of classes. Keep you eyes open in your emails and other temple communications for a very short survey to identify interest.

As a reminder, many people in Manatee County need our help getting food. As most of you know, our PB&J sandwich drive has restarted, and our next date to drop off sandwiches at the temple is Thursday, August 15th, between 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. In addition to making sandwiches, we will also be volunteering at Our Daily Bread on Thursday, August 22nd from 9:30 to 11:30. More information may be found under the "Events / Upcoming Events" menu on our website.

Be safe, be well.

Regards,

Joel Auerbach

News from our Sisterhood & Brotherhood

The Sisterhood met on July 18 at the Temple. We welcomed our new member Marcia Braff. We gratefully acknowledged the donation from Bonnie Krazik's estate. She was a wonderful and active member of the Temple and the Sisterhood. We also made a generous donation to the Magen David Adom, Israel's emergency response.

We are planning a visit to the Sarasota Art Museum (in the former high school) on September 18. Their installation art is always exciting and unique. We will have a docent tour followed by an optional lunch across the courtyard at the Bistro restaurant. Details to follow.

Future activities we are considering include a tour of SRQ airport, attending a rehearsal of the Perlman Suncoast Program's orchestra with Itzak Perlman, and a tour of the Sarasota Opera costume department. All suggestions are welcome.

The next meeting is at the Temple on August 15. Please note the new time is 3:15, not 3:30. We welcome all women of TBE. Our dues are $35.00 for the year. We look forward to

I'm very honored to have been chosen as the new President of the Brotherhood. I want to urge all the men to join us. One of our goals this year is to have an event at least every other month. Non-Temple members are encouraged to attend. I feel, if they get to know us, they will want to join the Temple. This month, we are sponsoring Jewish Community Day at the Tampa Bay Rays Game at Tropicana Stadium. It is being held on Sunday August 11. Please contact Mitch @ 941 807-1246 for ticket availability. I hope to see you there.

A reminder, our meetings are no longer being held at the IHOP on Sunday mornings. All meetings are now being held at one of the brother's homes. If you're interested in hosting, please let me know. Our next meeting is Tuesday, August 13 @ 7:00 p.m.

Welcome New Members!

Joining our synagogue reminds us that we're part of a wider community and gives us a chance to reach out and unite with others. We are a warm and inviting community. Our Shabbat services are open to everyone.

Let's all welcome our newest members:

"Our Daily Bread" in Bradenton is a community-driven organization supported by churches, foundations, and numerous other community-oriented organizations. In addition to feeding the hungry, they collect health and beauty aids, everything from soap and shampoo to lotion and sunblock, to give to those in need. Please consider donating to this worthwhile project. Please place your donated items under the bulletin board in the lobby.

TBE PEANUT BUTTER and JELLY PROGRAM IS BACK!

It's easy-peasy. All you need to do is make peanut butter and jelly sandwiches or peanut butter and fluff sandwiches, wrap them in individual sealed zip lock bags and bring to TBE on the 3rd Thursday of every month. You can drop them off at the temple between 1 pm and 4 pm, Ken Handelman will come to TBE to deliver them to Our Daily Bread, so they can be handed out at the food pantry on Friday. The smallest things can make a HUGE difference.

Ask the Rabbi

Question:

What exactly is the holiday of Tisha B'Av?

Answer:

Tisha B'Av literally means the 9th day of the month of Av. It is regarded as the saddest day in the Jewish calendar, a day in which numerous tragedies in Jewish history occurred. Some of the tragedies include:

- The spies returned from the Promised Land with frightening reports, and the Israelites balked at the prospect of entering the land. G-d decreed that they would therefore wander in the desert for 40 years.
- Both Holy Temples in Jerusalem were destroyed on this date. The First Temple was burned by the Babylonians and the Second Temple fell to the Romans.
- The Bar Kochba revolt against the Romans ended in defeat: The Jews of Betar were butchered and the Temple Mount was plowed one year later on the same date.
- The 1290 expulsion of England's Jews
- The 1492 banishment of all Jews from Spain.

SUPPORTING OUR DAILY BREAD OF BRADENTON

Friday Aug. 16th & Saturday, Aug. 17th, 2024

On Tisha B'Av (the 9th day in the Hebrew month of Av) we remember the destruction of the Temples in Jerusalem and other calamities in our history. It is a national day of mourning for the Jewish people. Just a few days later on Tu'B Av (the 15th day in the Hebrew month of Av) the tide turns.

Tu' B Av can be traced back to the grape harvest, when single women would dress in white and dance in the light of the full moon in vineyards to signal their status as being eligible for marriage. Today, Tu B'Av is making a comeback in Israel, where it's celebrated as a modern Jewish Valentine's Day with ancient roots.

Please join us for our Friday night Shabbat service at 7pm and/or our Shabbat morning service at 10am as we delve deeper into this lesser known, yet intriguing (and romantic) holiday!

An Easy Way to Donate to TBE

Most of use have a dish where we collect coins that fell into our pockets or purses. Please consider donating them to the Temple's "Pushki Fund." One hundred percent of the coins donated will go to the Temple's general fund and help us fund on-going operations. We will acknowledge your donation by letter and, if you itemize deductions, you can use the amount to lower your tax bill. Just put the coins into a sturdy plastic bag along with a note with your name and address. Leave the bag on the Temple's desk in the office the next time you come to services. We'll take it from there.

Legacy Gift Giving

Please consider Temple Beth El in your Trust or Will stating a gift is to be made upon your passing. Your legacy gift will help ensure that Temple Beth El's 50-year history will serve the community for generations to come.

Aside from the tax incentives, there is no greater gift than leaving a lasting memory. Your gift can be a monetary gift, a piece of property, or a valuable or collectible item that might be relevant to your faith in G-d. And just as importantly, your gift might inspire others to give back as well.

The synagogue can purchase burial plots in the "Gardens of Abraham" section of the Skyway cemetery and pass the savings on to our members.

Respecting Holiness in Our Gathering Place

The TBE Sanctuary is a special place where we go for spiritual connection, reflection, and prayer. We ask that during services, congregants refrain from wearing tank tops, spaghetti straps, mini-skirts, shorts, or t-shirts. Please turn your cell phone off or place it on vibrate and refrain from social conversations once the service has begun.

TREE OF LIFE!

Leaves are available on the Tree of Life in the temple lobby. Have your leaf custom engraved to honor a loved one for $100. Call the temple office for details.
