My Message - By Reb Tuviah

Shalom, Shalom!

How wonderful it is to be a part of the Jewish faith, especially during this most meaningful season! The holidays begin and end with introspection and celebration; we welcome the Jewish New Year of 5783 and commemorate the birthday of the world (Rosh HaShanah), we spend a full day fasting and repenting for our misdeeds (Yom Kippur), we give thanks for the fall harvest and build rickety shelters as a metaphor for the fragility of life (Sukkot), and finally, we rejoice with the Torah (Simchat Torah) as we roll it all the way back to the very beginning and the story of Creation.

If I had to summarize the Jewish High Holy Days into one statement, I would say that they are a time during which we have an opportunity to hit our "reset buttons" and begin with a blank screen. Jews are required to review their deeds through a process known as Cheshbon haNefesh, an accounting of the soul. It is an opportunity to evaluate the past year and to take responsibility for the ways in which we fell short of living up to our potential as human beings; in which we may have "missed the mark." It is also a time during which we ask forgiveness directly from those whom we have wronged during the course of the year and to promise we will make every effort to not commit the same offense again. Apologizing is never easy but it can go a long way in healing relationships and taking weight off of our conscience. As you know, during the High Holy Days, we try and mend our relationship with God, which may have suffered over the course of the year. But this is also a time to work on our other relationships as well. We can ask ourselves – have we been the best parent, grandparent, great-grand parent, child, sibling, friend that we could have been?

As I conclude this High Holiday message, I'd like to leave you with an exercise that I hope you participate in and truly take to heart. Here's the exercise:

Find a childhood photograph of yourself. Look at it deeply and quietly for a period of time. Then ask yourself, "Would that child be proud of the adult you have become?" Why and/or why not? Bring the answers to that question with you into our sanctuary during these next few weeks and be prepared for some deep, meaningful, and most insightful results.

I wish you all Shana Tova u'Metukah, a Happy and Sweet New Year!

L'Shalom,
Reb Tuviah

What do the Months Tell Us?

By Nancy Beltran-Schreiber, Rebbetzin

Tishrei is the seventh of the twelve months of the Jewish calendar. It is always 30 days. It is known as a month of satiation because it is replete with holidays! Let's go on a journey through this month... The very first day of Tishrei is Rosh Hashanah, the power of the shofar calling our soul to awaken. From there we move to Yom Kippur, a time to acknowledge our shortcomings when we ask for forgiveness and forgive ourselves. Then, the holiday of Succoth give us the opportunity to live in booths and remember that our ancestors survived in the dessert for forty years emphasizing that our fortress and peace comes from the Divine. After Sukkot, the Holy One invites us to “stay a little longer’ with the gift of Shemini Atzeret. And finally, we culminate this string of holy days with the complete joy of Simchat Torah!

This is the month of rebirth, renewal! As we go through each of these holy days during the month of Tishrei, we are given the opportunity to open – to look deep within with honesty and love – in order to reconnect with our true essence and become again that which we were always meant to be.

I bless us all with the humbleness, honesty and courage to spend time looking deep within, to forgive those who have wronged us and to forgive ourselves, to sit with the discomfort of birthing something new, in order to have a complete teshuvah and bless our community with our true, divine being!

A Message from our Temple President

Shalom Temple family and friends,

As the Jewish New Year begins, I want to take an opportunity to thank a couple of organizations for their generosity. Temple Beth El is very appreciative to the Jewish Federation of Sarasota/Manatee for providing our shul with a grant to help us purchase our new HHD prayer books, MISHKAN HANEFESH, which are transliterated from Hebrew to English. We thank them for all their help and support throughout the year. Also, we thank Robert Toale and Sons, who recently provided a donation to fund our new Shabbat School curriculum, Shalom Learning. I am pleased to report that both the children and teachers are enjoying the new lessons.

Every year during the High Holidays, it is customary for all Temple members to fulfill a mitzvah by filling a Publix Paper grocery bag with non-perishable food to donate to Meals on Wheels. In the past years, we were able to donate 1000lbs of food, and hope we can surpass that number this year! There are grocery bags in the lobby of our Temple for you to take home and return to the Temple up until October 18th, just after Simchat Torah. I thank everyone in advance for your support!

Last month, I purchased a set of our new HHD prayer books to keep in our home and I participated in the adult education classes with Reb Tuviah to discuss them. What an amazing experience! I wonder if other members or friends had the opportunity to preview our new Machzor for the Days of Awe. I was inspired by some words of wisdom from Rabbi Laura Geller that I would like to share with you. “Your Book of Life doesn’t begin today, on Rosh Hashanah. It began when you were born. Some of the chapters were written by other people: your parents, siblings, and teachers. Parts of your book were crafted out of experiences you had because of other people’s decisions: where you lived, what schools you went to, and what your homes were like. But the message of Rosh Hashanah, the anniversary of the creation of the world, is that everything can be made new again, that much of your book is written every day—by the choices you make. The book is not written and sealed; you get to edit it, decide what parts you want to emphasize and remember, and maybe even which parts you want to leave behind. Shanah Tovah means both a good year and a good change. Today you can change the rest of your life. It is never too late.”

On behalf of Temple Beth El's Board of Directors, my family, and myself, I would like to wish everyone a year of health, happiness, and prosperity, and may we have a year of peace and security in Israel, the United States, and all around the world.

Shanah Tovah, Ron Eiseman

Religious School - A New Way, An Exciting Way!

Hebrew School has started! The children loved the first day of school! They got to know each other. They learned Hebrew letters and sang the Hebrew alphabet song. After that, they learned the word, "Shalom", presented the drawings to the congregation and participated in the blessings over the wine and Challah.

No longer on Sunday, now "Hebrew/Religious school" happens every Saturday starting at 9:30 am and is "Shabbat School!" After their studies, the children join the congregation in the Sanctuary for services. It is a delight for all. Children are included in the true celebration of Judaism. They become a part of their religion in a meaningful, practicing way, participating alongside their parents or grandparents and the rest of the congregants. This is the way learning was meant to be.

If you know of anyone interested in "Hebrew School" for their children, please have them contact Rabbi Tuviah.

If you would like more information, including Bar/Bat Mitzvah preparations and how to enroll, contact, Rabbi Tuviah – rebtuviah@gmail.com

News from Sisterhood

Greetings from the TBE Sisterhood as we all prepare for and participate in the High Holy Days! On September 20, we had a Rosh Chodesh Circle which explored the month of Tishrei. The Sisterhood has planned monthly events for November 2022, December 2022, and January 2023 after the “snowbirds” return, and will be co-sponsoring the November and January events with the TBE Men’s Club. In November, we’re visiting a local winery, in December we’ll have our annual Sisterhood Chanukah pot-luck and gift exchange, and in January we’ll be attending a Neil Diamond tribute concert. Check the TBE website (www.bethel-fl.or) or the Temple Beth-El weekly wrap for more details as they become available. In the meantime, we are considering events post-January 2023 and would love to hear your ideas and thoughts.

For those of you looking for gift ideas, Sisterhood member Jill Salazar makes lovely Jewish themed jewelry. Plan to take a look at her display the next time you are at Services (on display until sundown typically on Friday when Shabbat begins).

Meg Weinberg, Sisterhood President

Gentlemen,

First of all, let me wish all of you a Shanna Tova. The best thing that I can think of to wish all of you is that this upcoming year be your best year ever.

As a reminder, our next meeting will be October 16, which is a Sunday at 9 AM at Perkins bakery and restaurant on 14th St. If you were not a member, we would love to have you anyway. Please consider this your invitation. Come check us out. We are a nice group. We don’t bite (at least not too often).

We have some great upcoming activities for both community service and for fun. For the members, if you have any items you want to put on the meeting agenda, please let me know. For any nonmembers who might be thinking of attending this breakfast meeting and you have any interesting ideas that you want to share we are open to any suggestions.

Sincerely,

Mitch Rubinstein, Men’s Club President

Our Mitzvah Projects

Temple Beth El has been working with the Salvation Army since the spring of 2020. People staying at the shelter need health and beauty aids; everything from soap and shampoo to Vaseline and sunblock. These items are only available as they are donated. Please consider donating to this worthwhile project. Items can be brought to the Temple. Please drop your items in the blue bins under the bulletin board in the lobby.

After the High Holidays, TBE will once again have the opportunity to participate in "produce packing" at Meals on Wheels at 811 23rd Avenue East. The Food Bank, with a grant from Bank of America, purchases fresh produce for their meal delivery clients. The project involves sorting and bagging the produce. No lifting required. If you choose to sit, you can sit. For a lot of people, this is the only fresh food in their diet. They very much look forward to receiving it. The more people we have the faster it goes. Arrive 8:30 am. (Typically just 2 hours or less of your time). Email Ken - kmhande63@ymail.com if you are planning to attend.

For many people, this is the only fresh food in their diet. They very much look forward to receiving it.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED.
WE HOPE YOU WILL CONSIDER
PARTICIPATING IN THIS WORTHWHILE
MITZVAH PROJECT.

Tax Planning and High Holiday Giving

If you have appreciated stock in any publicly traded company, you can donate the stock to Temple Beth El. You may be able to deduct the current market value from your 2021 taxable income as a Schedule A deduction without paying capital gains tax. The Temple can then sell the stock and use the funds to continue our good work.

Tax year 2021 appears to be the last year that most taxpayers can take up to a charitable cash contribution to a non-profit organization (such as Temple Beth El) directly from adjusted gross income. This "above the line" deduction is limited to $300 for taxpayers filing as single, head of household, qualified widow(er)s, and married filing separately. Taxpayers filing joint returns are limited to $600.

As in all things tax-related, there are exceptions and additional rules. Each person's situation is unique. Please check with your tax preparer to be sure. These are general suggestions only based on publicly available information.

An Easy Way to Donate to TBE

Most of us have a dish where we collect coins that fell into our pockets or purses. Please consider donating them to the Temple's "Pushki Fund." One hundred percent of the coins donated will go to the Temple's general fund and help us fund on-going operations. We will acknowledge your donation by letter and, if you itemize deductions, you can use the amount to lower your tax bill. Just put the coins into a sturdy plastic bag along with a note with your name and address. Leave the bag on the Temple's desk in the office the next time you come to services. We'll take it from there.

This month's Article of Interest!

King Charles III and the Jews

With the passing of Britain's beloved Queen Elizabeth II at age 96, the longest serving monarch in the United Kingdom's history, her eldest son Prince Charles has become Britain's newest monarch. Here are six facts about King Charles III, Jews, and Israel.

Circumcised by a Rabbi

King Charles III has something in common with thousands of British Jews, he was circumcised by Rabbi Jacob Snowman (1871-1959), a brilliant physician and one of London's leading mohelim (Jewish ritual circumcisers). It's widely believed that the tradition dates back to the early 1700s, when Britain's King George I – who was born in Germany – imported the custom of German noblemen to have mohelim circumcise their sons, though some have disputed this account, claiming that this royal practice is far newer. It's unclear why this became a tradition, but some speculate that their extensive experience reassured anxious parents that their sons would be safe during the procedure. Charles' mother Queen Elizabeth wanted only the best for Charles, so she turned to Rabbi Snowman, who was well known in London's Jewish community.

Visiting Israel

Unlike Queen Elizabeth II, who never visited Israel in all her long years on the throne, her son Charles has made trips to the Jewish state. One emotional visit occurred in 2016, when he travelled to Jerusalem for the funeral of former Israeli Prime Minister Shimon Peres. While there, Charles visited the grave of his grandmother, Princess Alice of Greece, who saved Jews during the Holocaust and was named Righteous Among the Nations by Yad Vashem. She is buried in Mount of Olives in Jerusalem.

Born in 1885, Princess Alice was the great granddaughter of Britain's Queen Victoria. She married Prince Andrew of Greece and moved to Athens with her new husband. She was intensely unhappy. A religious Christian, Alice watched as her husband drifted into a life of dissolution. With the rise of Nazism in the 1930s, her three daughters all became ardent Fascists and married Nazi officials. Only her son Philip, King Charles father, defied Nazism, moving to England and fighting with distinction in the British air force during World War II.

Princess Alice remained at home in Athens alone; her husband had long since left her and was completely devoted to a life of drinking and gambling. During the Holocaust, Princess Alice invited a Jewish family she was friends with, the Cohens, to move into her apartment with her. Her building was next to the Gestapo's Athens headquarters, and Princess Alice was even brought in for questioning at one point, but she refused to divulge the fact that she was sheltering Jews.

Support Temple Beth El and the Jewish Community of Manatee County

Shop with Amazon and we'll donate to TBE, at no cost to you.

Do you shop on Amazon? If yes, then we have an easy way to support Temple Beth El with each purchase you make! Go to:

<https://smile.amazon.com>

Use Amazon like you always do. Everything is exactly the same but remember, we get credit if you order from the Smile side. It must say 'smile.amazon.com' every time. The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases directly to Temple Beth El.

Do you want your company advertised here? Contact us today: (941) 755-4900 or info@bethel-fl.org Prices start as low as $35 a month for a business card size ad. Please patronize our advertisers who help support Temple Beth El.

These fine companies are supporting Temple Beth El, please support them back!
